

auto whose names she does not remember. Also that she gave the very same information to Capt. Walsh and that she was also quizzed by Mr. Simpson. Also that she received a letter from Willie's mother stating that she should not be angry and that Erling forced Staub to tell these lies and to save himself and he Staub had to do the same. Then she further states that there was some talk about Staub being handcuffed to the bed. Martha Sweeny the nurse bears out with Miss Smith in this story because she read the letter.

I asked Miss Smith if she still has this letter and it is her belief that she destroyed same, but should she find it she would be glad to let us have it.

She is working at the hospital as a cook. From the observation I made of this girl it appears to me she is very timid.
